Task 4

Au pair in England by Aneta Černá : reading

I moved to the UK 3 months ago. I live with a family and my job is to look after 2 children. I take them to school and wash their clothes. I also walk the dog, clean a house and cook dinner, sometimes pasta or Czech meal like řízek. Every Wednesday I have an English lesson. I also like to get together with other au pairs from Spain, Australia and Poland and we speak English together.

English food:

English people don't have a big lunch like Czech people. They eat a sandwich, a piece of bread or a snack. They eat a big dinner later a day: chicken and rice, pasta or curry. I don't think it is very healthy. I like roast dinner, but I don't like eating salt crisps.

Some different things:

I love one of the traditions here. When you have an empty bottle of milk, you leave it next to your door and a milkman brings a new bottle of fresh milk the next day. Another different thing is the clothes people wear. Everyone wore skirts and dresses and high heels. There is no smoking area in pubs or clubs.

- Answer – 1. How often per week does she study English?
2. When is the main meal of the day?
3. Which food doesn't she like?
4. What is special about English pubs?

About you – Would you like to work as an au pair? Why? Why not?
